service for the children and for the parents as needed;	School Authorities as required;	that are directly organized by the Association and those for which the Association ensures the organization and management. The words “and any other activities” have been added to enable the Association to organize any other activities for the children. The words “acting in liaison with the School Authorities as required” have been added.
	Article 4.1.g) to ensure the organisation and management of other activities, such as school transport and school catering, in association with the School Authorities as required;	New article This is the second part of Article 2e) of 2012 Statutes (transport, canteen). The text in Article 2e) of the 2012 Statutes “to develop any other service for the children and for the parents as needed” is covered in the wording “to ensure the organisation and management of other activities, such as [...]”. The words “in association with the School Authorities as required” have been added.
Article 2 d) to promote links and if necessary to establish direct collaboration with the Associations of the Parents of the other European Schools, in particular with those whose offices are located in the agglomeration of Brussels;	Article 4.1.h) to promote links and, where appropriate, to cooperate directly with the Parents’ Associations of the other European Schools, in particular with those whose registered office is located within the judicial district of Brussels;	Editorial amendments.

Article 2 g) The Association achieves its aims in close cooperation with its members. It can perform any act directly or indirectly, wholly or partly related to its aims, which can develop them or ease their implementation.	Article 4.2 The Association shall achieve its aims in close cooperation with its members. It can perform any act directly or indirectly, wholly or partly related to its aims, which can develop them or ease their implementation.	Editorial amendments.
Article 3.1 The Association differentiates between members and full members.	Article 5.1 The Association represents all parents and consists of Honorary Members and Members.	In the 2012 Statutes “members” are all parents with a child in the school (no voting rights). “Full members” are the class representatives with voting rights (see also Article 3.5 of the 2012 Statutes).
Article 3.2 Any person exercising parental authority over one or more pupils of the European School of Brussels IV, named hereafter “pupil parent”, is a member, without any formality necessary.	Article 5.2 Any person exercising sole or shared parental authority over a child attending the school is an Honorary Member without any formality for membership being required.	The Association, once recognized by the Board of Governors, represents the parents in the school.
	Article 5.3 Any person exercising sole or shared parental authority over a child attending the school, having paid the Association’s annual fee, is a Member of the Association and is thus entitled to benefit from the various services and facilities provided by the Association.	The words “Sole or shared parental authority” are added for precision.
Article 3.3 The payment of the annual membership fee for the Association needs to be made before the 1st November so that any election of a member is valid. The Board of the Association can modify this deadline generally or in specific cases.	Article 5.4 Payment of the Association’s annual fee should be made no later than the date determined by the Administrative Board. The Administrative Board can modify this deadline generally or in specific cases.	Reference to “membership” fee replaced by “annual” fee because it is not a membership fee but a fee which entitles the Member to benefit from the services/facilities provided by the Association. Date of 01 November replaced by “date determined by the Administrative Board” in order

		to give more flexibility. Reference to “so that any election of a member is valid” has been deleted because the point of the fee is for using the services.
	Article 5.5 The minimum number of Members is 8 persons. There is no upper limit on the number of Members.	New Article Belgian law does not stipulate a minimum number, but the Justice Ministry website advises there be a minimum of three members. Eight has been used to ensure a reasonably-sized Board, given the tasks that have to be done by the AB.
Article 3.4 The members are invited to the General Assemblies, can propose motions, in accordance with the provisions of Article 6(7), and can summon a General Assembly in accordance with the provisions of Article 6(4).	Article 5.6 Members who are up-to-date with their contributions to the Association, and in accordance with the provisions of these Statutes and any Rules of Procedure that may be established under these Statutes: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> a) may be nominated as Class Representatives; b) may be nominated as Section Representatives; c) may attend General Assemblies, but do not have voting rights; d) may propose motions to be submitted for the vote of a General Assembly, subject to the provisions of the Rules of Procedure of the General Assembly; e) may propose subjects for discussion at the General Assembly, ordinary or extraordinary, subject to the provisions of the Rules of Procedure of the General 	This article brings together into one article the various powers of Members, which were in various articles throughout the Statutes, for ease of reading and reference. Draft rules of Procedure of the General Assembly are also submitted for consideration and approval to the extraordinary GA on 26 June 2017.

	Assembly; f) may convene a General Assembly, subject to the provisions of the Rules of Procedure of the General Assembly; g) may stand for election to the Administrative Board; h) may attend meetings of the Administrative Board as an observer, at the invitation of the President, without voting rights.
	Article 5.7 In addition to the provisions of Article 5.2 above, Honorary Membership may also be granted by decision of the Administrative Board. By derogation from Article 5.2, being a parent of a pupil in the school shall not be a strict requirement. The Honorary Member shall not have voting rights, nor propose or second motions nor stand for elective office in the Association.	New article. This provision enables the Association to continue to represent parents who no longer have a child in the school, where warranted. Honorary membership may be awarded also to people who have helped the school-APEEE in some significant way.
	Article 5.8 In case of doubts regarding the conformity of a vote, revocation or any other decision affecting a Member or an Honorary Member, relevant evidence shall be submitted to the Administrative Board. A directory of the Board's decision shall be maintained at the Association's registered office. This directory shall be made available for consultation at the Association's registered office.	New article Purpose is to ensure open and transparent decision-making. The directory will merely contain the Board's decision. It will not contain any confidential or sensitive supporting information.

Article 3.7 All members who have paid the annual membership fee are eligible to be voted onto the Board of the Association.		Text moved up into draft Article 5.5g) above.
Article 4.5 The list of members and full members of the Association is available for consultation at the registered address of the Association.	Article 5.9 The membership list of the Association shall be made available for consultation at the Association's registered office.	Editorial changes.
Article 4.1 If a parent no longer has a child at the school this automatically means loss of membership or full membership of the Association and termination of possible elective functions.	Article 6.1 Membership shall cease when a parent no longer has a child at the school.	Can apply to become Honorary Members, if necessary (see Article 5.6). Deletion of "termination of possible elective functions" because the possibility to co-opt someone has been introduced in Article 11.8.c) below.
Article 4.2 Any member of the Association can present his/her resignation by registered letter to the President.	Article 6.2 Any Member of the Association may tender his or her resignation in writing, addressed to the President of the Association.	Removal of "registered letter" requirement as it can be onerous. An email or a letter sent by surface post should suffice.
Article 4.3 The exclusion of a member can be proposed by the Board of the Association and must be decided formally by the General Assembly by a majority of two thirds of the votes of the full members present or represented after the member is permitted to present his or her defence publicly, if they so wish.	Article 6.3 A Member may be excluded, on a proposal from the Administrative Board, by a two-thirds majority of Class Representatives present or represented at the General Assembly. However, such a measure may only be taken after a formal warning has been sent by registered post to the Member concerned at least sixty days before the General Assembly, inviting him or her either to provide written explanations or to present their defence at the General Assembly, if they so	Text amended to reflect wording used in EEB II's statutes. Registered post requirement is retained here (in two places) given the seriousness of the matter.

	wish. The exclusion shall be notified by registered post.
Article 4.4 A member ceasing to be a member of the Association has no right to the Social fund.	Article 6.4 A Member ceasing to be a member of the Association has no right to any total or partial refund of the annual fee, or of access to the Community Fund and/or Social Fund.	Article 4.4 of the 2012 Statutes referred to the Social Fund but nowhere else. Draft Article 11.12 (below) formally establishes a Community Fund and a Social Fund.
Article 3.6 The ' full members':	Article 7.1 Class representatives represent the parents of children of the class within the Association.	In the 2012 Statutes the term "full members" meant the class representatives. Definition of their function given.
Article 3.6a) represent the class parents within the Association for all questions for all questions relating to the aims described in article 2 and specific to the class which they represent ;	Article 7.2a) represent the parents regarding any issue related to the class that they represent, as well as any issue related to the activity and object of the Association;	Rewording to simplify and make more transparent.
Article 3.6c) consult with, and inform, the class parents in the appropriate way.	Article 7.2b) confer with, and inform, other parents of the school of any relevant matters;	Editorial changes
	Article 7.2c) may administer the mutual fund of the class, if any, constituted to cover common costs during the academic year;	New sub-article Several classes have established class funds and a clause is needed to cover them.
Article 3.6b) represent the parents by taking part in voting at the General Assembly;	Article 7.2d) represent the parents by taking part in voting at the general Assembly. Class Representatives have full voting rights at General Assemblies, provided that they are up-to-date with their contributions at the time of the vote.	Text added that class representatives must have paid their annual fee in order to be eligible to vote.

Article 3.5 At the class meeting at the beginning of each school year, parents elect four class representatives from the parent members. These four representatives are "full members" on condition that they have paid their membership fee in accordance with paragraph 3.	Article 7.3 At the beginning of each school year, a minimum of two (2) and a maximum of four (4) Class Representatives are elected for each class by the parents from amongst the Members of the Association, excluding Honorary Members.	Depending on the degree of interest amongst parents, there may not be enough candidates to fill the four posts. Hence some flexibility has been added.
	Article 7.4 Class Representatives are elected directly by the parents with a child in the class. Each child in the class entitles the parents to one single vote. A parent can represent only one class. A parent can delegate his vote to another parent but no parent can be allowed to accept more than two such proxy votes in regard to the elections within a same class. Proxy votes must be in writing and include the names of both parties and the signature of the absent parent.	New article Voting process for class representatives. Text taken from EEB II RoP (article 7 (part)) Rules governing proxy votes added.
	Article 7.5 The method of election shall be left to the discretion of the parents for that class but care should be taken to avoid conflicts of interest. The election process shall be the collective responsibility of the parents of the children in each class. Nominations may be accepted right up to the time of the voting. A conflict of interest may arise if the Class Representative or a close family member may	New article Text taken from EEB II RoP (articles 5, 7 (part)) Conflict of interest provision added. Definition of conflict of interest in relation to class representatives added. Should a teacher who is also a parent become a class representative, this definition is elastic enough to enable teachers to serve as class reps while avoiding topics where they might have a conflict of interest.

	derive a benefit; or if they have a financial interest, professional interest in, or are a partner, director, officer, board member, or trustee of an entity relating to the work of the Association, or if they are otherwise directly or indirectly interested in the matter.	Note that conflict of interest in relation to the Administrative Board has also been added in the draft Rules of Procedure for the AB, which are also submitted for approval to the General Assembly on 26 June 2017.
	Article 7.6 Parents shall appoint a Presiding Officer to verify the validity of proxies and to ensure the regularity of the voting proceedings. The Presiding Officer must, within two weeks of the elections, transmit the results of the voting on the form provided, to the Administrative Board for approval and formal appointment as Class Representatives.	New article Text taken from EEB II RoP (article 6). The Presiding Officer (one of the parents in the class) ensures that the voting process for class representatives is above board and also sends the voting results to the AB.
	Article 7.7 Class Representatives who have been appointed by the Administrative Board may retain their status until such time as those replacing them have been appointed. This does not apply in cases where the Class Representative resigns, fails to pay the annual fee or otherwise ceases to be a Member.	New article Once the AB has appointed the class representatives, they cannot be arbitrarily revoked except by following the stipulated process (see draft Article 7.9 below).
	Article 7.8 If, during an academic year, a Class Representative decides to withdraw, the Administrative Board may invite the parents for that class to vote in order to elect a successor.	New article Replacement process for a class representative.

	Article 7.9 The parents of each class can revoke the status of one or all of their class representatives by a three-quarters majority vote of all the parents for that class. In such a case, a proxy vote is not possible.	New article Parents have the right to revoke the status of a class representative.
	Article 7.10 Each class may elect deputies to assist one or more of their class representatives, subject to the agreement of the Class Representatives concerned. Such deputies may not attend Administrative Board meetings, nor have voting rights, nor propose or second motions. Their function is only to assist the Class Representatives in their work.	New article. Election of deputies to assist Class representatives.
	Article 7.11 The minimum overall number of Class Representatives for the school level concerned shall be four (4) persons.	New article. Note that this number relates to the overall number for the school level concerned, not to the number of class representatives for each class.
	Article 7.12 Only the votes of the Class Representatives shall be binding at General Assemblies.	New article. Purpose is to make clear that only class representatives have voting rights at GAs.
	Article 8.1 Section Representatives: a) deal with co-ordination within each language section for activities related thereto; b) represent the parents on the School	New article. Section representatives are appointed by the class representatives, and they essentially deal with each language section.

	Education Council; c) are the contact points with the national inspectors responsible for the content and quality of teaching provided by teachers from their country; d) assist the Administrative Board on request.
	Article 8.2 At the beginning of each school year, immediately after the elections for the Class Representatives have been held, the Class Representatives for the school level concerned (maternelle/primary and secondary) will appoint Section Representative(s) for each language section from amongst the Members of the Association, excluding Honorary Members.	New article Process for appointing section reps.
	Article 8.3 The names of the selected Section Representative(s) for each language section shall be communicated to the Administrative Board.	New article Requirement to inform the AB of the elected section reps.
	Article 8.4 A Section Representative may also be a Class Representative, with associated voting rights at the General Assembly. Should a Section Representative not also be a Class Representative they will have no voting rights at the General Assembly.	New article Section reps do not have voting rights at GAs unless they are also, at the same time, class reps.

	Article 8.5 Section Representatives for each language section may retain their status until such time as those replacing them have been appointed. This does not apply in cases where the Section Representative resigns, or fails to pay the annual fee.	New article Section reps are appointed by the class reps; they cannot be arbitrarily revoked. The revocation process is described in Article 8.7 below;
	Article 8.6 If, during an academic year, a Section Representative for each language section decides to withdraw, the Class Representatives for the school level concerned may select a successor.	New article Article empowers a successor to be appointed.
	Article 8.7 The Class Representatives for the school level concerned can revoke the status of one or all of their Section Representatives for each language section by a three-quarters majority vote of all the parents for that language section. In such a case, a proxy vote is not possible.	New article This article describes the revocation process for Section reps.
Article 5 The main parts of the Association are: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • The General Assembly; • The Board; • The Executive Board "Bureau". 	Article 9.1 The Association consists of the: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> a) General Assembly, which sets the policy of the Association; b) Administrative Board, which implements the policy of the Association and makes proposals to the General Assembly; c) Executive Committee, which is responsible for the day-to-day running of the 	More description added to make it clear that the General Assembly is the over-arching decision-maker and the Administrative Board is accountable to it at all times. Article 21.1 As a legal entity the Association exercises its rights as a legal entity, and carries out its obligations via its statutory bodies.	Article 9.2 The Association exercises its rights as a legal entity, and carries out its obligations via the constituent bodies of the Association	Editorial change for clarity.
Article 21.2 The members of these bodies exercise the rights and obligations of the Association collectively.	Article 9.3 The Members of each constituent body of the Association shall exercise and fulfil the Association's rights and duties collectively.	Editorial change for clarity.
Article 17 All the proceedings of the Association, except special proxies signed by two Administrators elected to the "Bureau", do not have to be justified with respect to third parties.	Article 9.4 The proceedings of the Association do not have to be justified with respect to third parties.	Deletion of requirement that special proxies have to be justified to third parties. These should be dealt with on a case by case basis.
Article 6.1 The General Assembly has the power to allow the implementation of the aims of the Association.	Article 10.1 The General Assembly shall have full powers to enable the objects of the Association to be achieved.	Editorial changes.
Article 6.2. The following subjects are the sole responsibility of the General Assembly: a) election and revocation of the members of the Board without prejudice to Article 12 (4); b) approval of the annual accounts and of the annual budget;	Article 10.2 The following subjects are under the General Assembly's exclusive competence: a) election of the members of the Administrative Board, and their revocation; b) approval of annual statements of the closing financial year and of the	Greater precision has been added For instance in b) the reference to the relevant financial year has been added.

Article 6.3 The General Assembly, which reunites all the members, meets legally, under the presidency of the President of the Board of the Association, at least once a year during the first term of the school year, preferably before the end of January, at their address or at a place indicated in the meeting invitation.	Article 10.3 The General Assembly, consisting of all Members, shall meet in ordinary session, chaired by the President of the Administrative Board, at least once a year during the first term of the school year, preferably before the end of January, at their registered address or at a place indicated in the notice convening the Assembly.	Editorial changes.
Article 6.4 The General Assembly can also meet in extraordinary session at the invitation of the Board. Moreover, it will have to be convened if a fifth of the full members or a tenth of the adherent members requests it. The rules of this article on the deadlines are applied mutatis-mutandis.	Article 10.4 The General Assembly may also meet in extraordinary session by decision of the Administrative Board. An extraordinary session must be convened on written request to the President of one-fifth of the Members, excluding Honorary Members, or one-tenth of the Class Representatives.	Editorial changes. Requirement for “written request” added. Deadlines are given in draft RoP GA.

Article 12.3 b) the resignation of the Administrator;	Article 11.7b) resignation of the member from the Administrative Board;	Editorial changes.
Article 12.3 e) failure to pay the annual membership within the prescribed time limit.	Article 11.7c) failure to pay the annual fee within the prescribed time limit;	Editorial changes.
Article 12.3 d) absence at meetings: the Administrator, who, without acceptable justification to the Board, has not participated at a minimum of five meetings of the Board during the school year, will be regarded as having resigned;	Article 11.7d) absence at meetings: the member of the Administrative Board, who, without acceptable justification to the Board, has not attended a minimum of five (5) Board meetings during the school year will be deemed to have resigned;	Editorial changes.
Article 12.3 a) a revocation by the General Assembly, ruling by a majority of two thirds of the present or represented full members;	Article 11.7e) revocation by the General Assembly, acting by a majority of two-thirds of the Class Representatives present or represented.	Reference made to "Class representatives", instead of "full members";
Article 12.4 Vacancies which occur during a mandate will be filled at the following General Assembly.	Article 11.8 Where, during a given term of office, a member of the Administrative Board can no longer exercise his or her office, the Board will decide whether: a) the position should remain vacant or; b) be filled from the reserve list of candidates by a new member for the remainder of that term of office, or; c) be co-opted following a call for candidates launched by the Administrative Board for	Expanded article. Gives more flexibility to fill a vacancy on the Administrative Board, in-between General Assemblies. Proposal to create a reserve list is in draft Article 11.5 above. The possibility to co-opt members to the AB has persons with specific areas of expertise or skills needed by the Board.	been added in cases where specific expertise or skills are needed.

Article 14.4 The President cannot exercise his mandate for more than four consecutive years. However if the Administrative Council takes a decision unanimously this can be extended for a maximum of an additional two years.	Article 11.9 The President of the Administrative Board shall be elected by the members of the Board for a term of office of two years, renewable twice at the discretion of the Administrative Board.	The duration of the President's term of office is unchanged. Revised wording makes provision for the President to be elected by the AB at the start of every term of office.
Article 21.3 The responsibility of the Board is collective, the Board being solely responsible for the decisions it takes.	Article 11.10 The Administrative Board shall perform its duties as a collegiate body, with collective responsibility for all matters relating to the work of the Association, including funds.	Editorial changes. Reference to funds added to make it clear that the AB has responsibility for ensuring that funds are correctly managed. The AB is accountable to the General Assembly.
Article 22.1 The collective responsibility of the Board does not prevent it from giving to its members or a committee, individual responsibilities, such as the management of the canteen, transport, the extra-curricular activities, etc.	Article 11.11 The Administrative Board's collective responsibility does not prevent it from giving individual responsibilities, such as Canteen, Extra-curricular school activities and Transport, to a committee or a working group that it may establish. Any such committee or working group thereby established shall act all times under the authority of the Administrative Board, which shall maintain a residual competence for all matters.	Expanded article. Purpose is to show that all committees, working groups, etc., act under the Administrative Board's delegated authority, which maintains a residual competence at all times.
	Article 11.12 The Administrative Board may propose to the General Assembly that funds be allocated to establish, or to contribute to, the funds utilized	New article Empowers the AB to finance the Community
